

THE FORAGING BEE

Bring the story home.

A hive with your name on it. A season to follow. Honey to share when the bees have enough for winter.

Your hive story starts here.

foragingbee.com/adopt-a-hive

Scan to join the free interest list. Family and business enquiries welcome.

The natural approach

How the 3H practice keeps hives happy, healthy and heavy.

foragingbee.com/philosophy

Mark Vanderende • Master Beekeeper

Princeton & North Delta, British Columbia

mvanderende71@gmail.com

Connect • Explore • Sustain

THE FORAGING BEE

Adopt-a-Hive

Have Fun with your Bees

Name a hive. Follow its story. Share the honey. Give your family or team a place in the life of our bees.

HAPPY • HEALTHY • HEAVY
NATURAL BEEKEEPING, THE 3H WAY

Connect • Explore • Sustain

FOR FAMILIES & LOCAL BUSINESSES

ONE HIVE. FOUR SEASONS.

Meet your bees.

Your hive has a name and a story. Photos and notes bring you along, from spring build-up to the autumn harvest.

01 Spring

Watch the colony wake.

02 Summer

See the bees at work.

03 Autumn

Share the honey they can spare.

REAL HONEY • A STORY TO SHARE

FOR THE FAMILY

The Family Hive.

$300 / YEAR · ADOPT YOUR HIVE

Give the kids a connection to the amazing honey bee. Name your hive, follow its seasons and visit on scheduled Sundays.

- 12 × 500 ml jars of raw honey in October
- A certificate of adoption to keep
- Your hive's name painted on its box
- Paint your hive with the kids — a family day in the hives
- Four photo updates throughout the year
- Invitations to Sunday in the Hives and Community Honey Day

Join January–March. Places are limited each year. Your twelve jars are guaranteed — insured, and made good even if the hive is lost. Mark sends a simple contract; payment by cash or e-transfer.

FOR THE BUSINESS

Put your team in the story.

A PLAN BUILT FOR YOUR BUSINESS

Your business gets a named hive, a certificate of adoption, honey, four story updates and a plaque. Mark builds the rest around your people.

Make it yours

- One hive or several; host one at your site if it fits
- A day in the hives for your staff
- Small honey jars and beeswax salves for gifts
- A role in Community Honey Day or a pollinator event
- A hive story to share on your socials; we share your partnership too

Custom plans from $1,000, quoted for your team and the experiences you choose.

WHAT IT MAKES POSSIBLE

More than honey.

An adoption connects local people to living hives and helps grow the Honey Wagon for school visits, youth experiences and community gatherings.

Community Honey Day

One golden day each year, our community gathers among the hives: honey tastings, live bee demos and hands-on fun for the kids. Adopters are on the VIP list.

Happy. Healthy. Heavy.

Natural beekeeping the 3H way: no chemicals, no shortcuts. Strong bees and full winter stores come before the harvest — bees that thrive make good honey. Read more: foragingbee.com/philosophy

Have land for bees?

Ask about hosting an apiary and following your own named hive.

START YOUR HIVE STORY

Scan the QR on the back to get in touch.